This work has been done quietly and thoroughly, by establishing headquarters in each camp, so that every camp and every hospital of the United States Army has been supplied with enough tobacco for every man and the sailors on thirty United States Ships in Cuban waters have shared with the soldiers this most welcome of all "rations."

Perhaps it will be only fair to remember then we hear the remark again that corporations have no souls," that there is one American corporation whose soul has been tried and has not been found wanting in "practical kindness."

A Dyspeptic's daily diet.

Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent of diseases. Thousands of people suffer from it in a more or less aggravated form. Few diseases are more painful to the individual or more far teaching in their effects on human life and happaness. What the dyspeptic needs is not local treatment, not more lemporary stimulus. The real need is the toning up of the entire system. For tify the system and it will do its own fighting, and promptly eject any intruding disease. The succe ca of Dr. Ager's Sarsaparilla in curing indigestion and dyspepsia is due to just this quality which it possesses, of renewing the vital forces, tepairing the waste and loss of the body. The ordinary treatment brings the food down to the level of the weak stomach. Or Ayer's Sarsaparilla puts strength into its stomach, and brings it up to the level of the strong food fit for men. It does this by strengthening the entire system. The stomach cannot stay weak when all the other organs are gaining strength. What Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for dyspepsia is best illustrated in cases like that of the Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for dyspepsia is best illustrated in cases like that of the Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for dyspepsia is best illustrated in cases like that of the Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for dyspepsia which gradually grew werse until I could see the strong food fit has one of the many remedies I took did with the old complaint, but am rogged and hence I had used half of it. She was a new woman and was rather proud of the fact that she had a place in the world of business that enabled her to regard herself as being on an equality with man. But there was one thing that annoyed her.

"I go down on the cur early every morning," she said, "with a young man who lives the said, "with a young man who lives have fact her and sunburet, and picked up a wondrous store of asionishing experiences. One day the farmer smitingly said to his mather:

a little farther out than I do, and I don't mind saying that he doesn't know what courtesy and gentlemanliness is."

"What does he do?" inquired her big brother, who doesn't think very much of new women, anyway, and is consequently opposed to his sister being in the world of business.

"It isn't what he does," she replied; "it's what he doesn't do. Time and again he has what he doesn't do. Time and again he has what he doesn't do. Time and again he has what he doesn't do. Time and again he has what he doesn't do. Time and again he has the little to the very first opportunity the mother was the very dear, what did you do with those eggs in the stable for?"

So the very first opportunity the mother was the very dear, what did you do with those eggs with the high two eggs in the stable for?"

Oh, mamma, "replied the boy, "I didn't want you to know about it."

"Why, it's all right," said mamma, "I only what my boy did with them."

No; give up his job. She has discovered that it would just about suit her, but the great big brute of a man hasn't chivalry and courtesy enough to get up from his desk, how politely and say. 'Madam, permit me to offer you my job.' Actually, he just hangs right on to it himself and lets her go hunting round for something to do. Most ungentlemanly, isn't it? But, do you know, I think the old-fashioned courtesy is."

MANY FEMALE ILLS RESULT FROM NEGLECT.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells How Ordinary Tasks May Produce Displacemen That Threaten Women's Health.

Apparently trifling incidents in women's daily life frequently producedisplacements of the womb. A struction, standing at a counter, running a sewing machine, or attending to the most ordinary tasks, may result in displacement, and train of serious evils is started. The first indication of such trouble should be the signal for quick action. Don't let the condition become chronic through neglect or a mistaken idea that you can overcome it by exercise or leaving it alone. More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice, and a few timely words from her will show you the right thing to do. This advice costs you nothing, but it may mean life or happiness or both.

Mrs. Mary Bennett, 314 Annie St., Bay City, Mich. writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I can hardly find words with which to thank you for the good your remedies have done me. For nearly four years I suffered with weakness of the generative organs, continual backache, headache, sideache, and all the pains that accompany female weakness. A friend told my husband about your Vegetable Compound and he brought me home two bottles. After taking these I felt much better, but thought that I would write to you in regard to my case, and you do not know how thankful I am to you for your advice and for the benefit I have received from the use of your medicine. I write this letter for the good of my suffering sisters." The above letter from Mrs. Bennett is the history of many women who have
